Join us in Observing the Two-Hundredth Anniversary of Brister Freeman's Death at the Birthplace of America's Civil Rights Struggle
Saturday, July 9 (12-1:30 PM) (free and open to the public)

The Robbins House, 320 Monument Street, Concord MA

Danielle Legros Georges is the Director of the MFA Program in Creative Writing at Lesley University. She is also the former Poet Laureate of the City of Boston, where she was tasked with raising the status of poetry in the everyday consciousness of Bostonians, acting as an advocate for poetry, language and the arts, and creating a unique artistic legacy through public readings and civic events.

John Hughes is an internationally renowned composer, kora player, percussionist and vocalist whose style crosses myriad cultural boundaries and fuses disparate influences. Also a sculptor, dancer, instrument builder and educator, John holds a BFA from the Tyler School of Art of Temple University and the West Surrey College of Art and Design in Farnham, England and an MFA from the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

Interfaith Minister at Union Theological Seminary, the Reverend Bertram Johnson is a faith leader who has spent more than two decades serving churches, non-profits, and faith-based organizations dedicated to social justice, spiritual care, and public health. He was the first openly gay African American to be ordained in the Presbyterian Church (USA).

Currently the president of the Cambridge (MA) branch of the NAACP, Kenneth Reeves served the people of Cambridge for twenty-four years as Mayor (three terms), Vice Mayor, City Councilor, and Chair of the Cambridge School Committee. He was the first Black and the first openly gay mayor in Massachusetts and the first openly gay Black mayor in the US.
